Change Control

ERNLLCA / Steve Parkinson. Clarity provided with regards to points 5.6 and 5.7. Confirmed (Recording 50mins) that if the Council choose to openly advertise the contract, contract finder must be used. The law does not state that a formal tender process or contract finder is used. There are a limited number of specialist playground contractors, and the most appropriate route will often be to contact a selection of companies with a contract brief rather than a formal tender as each company will recommend alternatives. It is possible to amend the limits (and potentially set them the same).
